Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-20, 23, 24, 25 and 28 drawn to a method of removing a binding site by treating a biological material with a surfactant, denaturant and a crosslinking agent, classified in class 568, subclass 487.
- II. Claims 21 and 22, drawn to a method of removing an unwanted protein from a biological material, classified in class 435, subclass 21.
- III. Claims 23, 26, 27, drawn to a method of removing an infectious agent from a biological material with enzyme digestion, classified in class 435, subclass 13.
- IV. Claims 23 and 29, drawn to a method of removing an infectious agent from a biological material by derivatizing a polycationic site, classified in class 424, subclass 70.27.
- V. Claims 23, 30-32, drawn to a method of removing an unwanted protein from a biological material by affinity binding, classified in class 530, subclass 413.
- VI. Claims 33-39, drawn to a method of blocking a binding site to prevent infectious agent from attaching to the binding site in a biological material, classified in class 424, subclass 9.332.
- VII. Claims 40-49, drawn to a method of blocking an infectious agent so that it is prevented from attaching to the binding site in a biological material, classified in class 514, subclass 150.

Art Unit: 1648

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Groups I-VII are drawn to methods and each is distinct from the other because they utilize different method steps and materials. Group I is drawn to a method of removing the binding site from a biological material with a surfactant and denaturant. Group II is drawn to removing the binding site provided by alkaline phosphatase, Thy-1 and acetylcholinesterase from a biological material. Groups III-V removing the binding site for an infectious material from the biological material. Though there may be overlap between these methods in question for groups III-V, each utilizes different materials and therefore methods steps are different. Group VI is drawn to blocking a binding site for an infectious agent. Group VII is drawn to blocking the infectious agent.

Claim 23 link(s) inventions I and III-V. The restriction requirement among the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claim 23. Upon the allowance of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be entitled to examination in the instant application. Applicant(s) are advised that if any such claim(s) depending from or including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) is/are presented in a continuation or divisional application, the claims of the continuation or divisional application may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

Art Unit: 1648

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above, have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and the literature searches required for each of the Groups are not required for another of the Groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(I).
